Unit #1 - Nature and Shakespeare

The attentive reader of Shakespeare's poems and plays can hardly fail to notice the remarkable frequency of the Poet's allusions to Birds, not merely as a great choir of songsters, enlivening the woods and fields with their varied music, but as individual creatures, each endowed with its own special characters. Shakespeare has drawn an assemblage of bird-portraits to which, for extent and variety, no equal is to be found in any other great English poet.

This displays the Edit Multimedia dialog box.

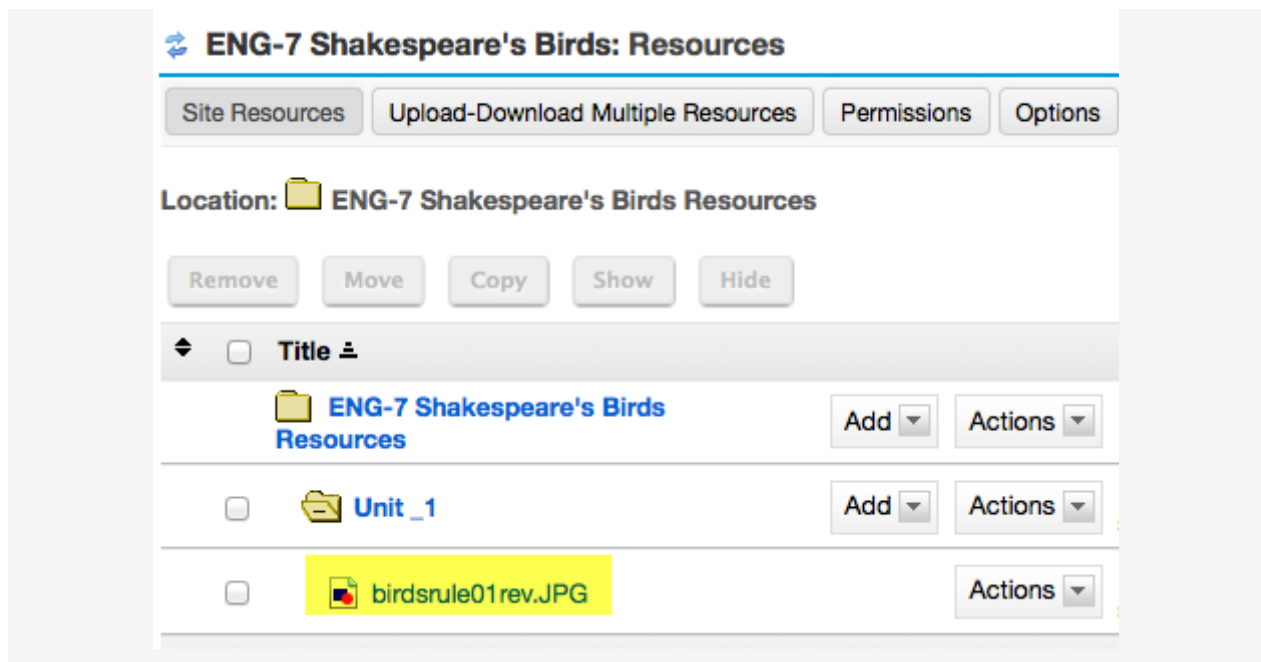

Add a description.

The "Edit Multimedia" dialog box is shown. It has a title bar with a close button. The fields are: "Width:" (empty), "Height:" (empty), "Alt Text" (birdsrule01rev.JPG), and "Path (in Resources)" (/Unit _1/birdsrule01rev.JPG). The "Item Description" field contains the text "Birds on a wire - a common sight." and is highlighted with a red border. Below this field is a link "Change File or URL". At the bottom, there are three buttons: "Save" (circled in red), "Cancel", and "Delete".

Enter a description in the Item Description text box and then click Save.

Notice the image file location.

Note that the image file was automatically uploaded to your Resources in a folder with the same name as the Lessons page.

From the Add Content drop-down menu, select Embed content on page. This displays the Embed Content dialog box.

Enter a URL.
